Opening Sung Meditation

Come and find the quiet centre in the crowded life we lead, find the room for hope to enter, find the frame where we are freed:
clear the chaos and the clutter, clear our eyes, that we can see all the things that really matter, be at peace, and simply be.

Call to Worship (Responsive)

Come, all who seek a place of welcome and love.
Like Mary and Martha, we bring our whole selves—some ready to listen, some busy with many tasks.
But Christ invites us all to be fully present, fully seen, and fully loved.

In this space,
we commit to being public in our embrace,
intentional in our actions,
and explicit in our love for all.
For all are wonderfully made in the image of God!

Let justice roll down like waters, and let love rise like a mighty wave.

We worship the One who calls us to deep belonging, radical hospitality, and true inclusion.

So come, whether you are busy or still, questioning or certain—there is a place for you here.
Let us worship together with open hearts and open arms!

▲ We Sing – All Are Welcome MV # 1

Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live, A place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions, rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions:
All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house
where prophets speak, and words are strong and true, where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace; here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:
All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine and wheat;
a banquet hall on holy ground, where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God, through Jesus, is revealed in time and space;
as we share in Christ
the feast that frees us:
All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house
where hands will reach beyond the wood and stone to heal and strengthen, serve and teach, and live the Word they've known.
Here the outcast and the stranger bear the image of God's face; let us bring an end to fear and danger:
All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where all are named, their songs and visions heard and loved and treasured, taught and claimed
as words within the Word.
Built of tears and cries and laughter, prayers of faith and songs of grace; let this house proclaim from floor to rafter:
All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.

Prayer of Confession (Responsive)

Loving and inclusive God, you call us to be fully present, to listen deeply,
and to welcome all with open hearts.
Yet too often, we are distracted—caught up in the busyness of our own concerns, failing to see those who long for a place at the table.

Forgive us when our welcome is hesitant, when our love is conditional, when our inclusion is anything less than public, intentional, and explicit.

Christ, you remind us that love is not just a word but an action.
Yet too often, we remain silent in the face of exclusion, leaving others to carry the weight of rejection alone.

Forgive us when we fail to stand up, speak out, and embody your radical hospitality.

Holy Spirit, move within us.
Open our eyes to see,
our hearts to love,
and our hands to serve.
May we become a people of true belonging,
where all are embraced
as your beloved.
Amen.

Assurance of Grace (Responsive)

Hear the good news:
Christ looks upon us not with judgment, but with love.
In every moment of hesitation, God offers us another chance to embody welcome.
In every place where we have fallen short, grace meets us and calls us forward.
We are forgiven, renewed, and called again to love boldly.

May we go forward with courage—public in our embrace,
intentional in our actions,
and explicit in our love.
Thanks be to God! Amen.

RESPONDING TO GOD'S WORD

▲ Draw the Circle Wide MV # 145

Draw the circle wide.
Draw it wider still.
Let this be our song,
no one stands alone,
standing side by side,
draw the circle wide.

God the still-point of the circle,
'round whom all creation turns;
nothing lost, but held forever, in God's gracious arms. R

Let our hearts touch far horizons, so encompass great and small;
let our loving know no borders, faithful to God's call. R

Let the dreams we dream be larger, than we've ever dreamed before;
let the dream of Christ be in us, open every door. R

Weaving our Prayers

You are invited to come to the front, take a ribbon from the basket and weave it in and out of the frame while some reflective music is played.

Bring to God whatever is on your heart and mind.

One ribbon on its own is easily broken, but woven together with others creates a strong fabric of belonging.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven Hallowed be thy name
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done
On earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil:
for thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen

Life and Ministry

▲ We Sing – A Place at the Table

For everyone born,
a place at the table,
for everyone born,
clean water and bread,
a shelter, a space,
a safe place for growing,
for everyone born, everyone born,
a star overhead,

Refrain:

and God will delight when we are creators of justice and joy, compassion and peace:
yes, God will delight when we are creators, creators of justice, of justice and joy!

For woman and man,
a place at the table,
revising the roles, deciding the share, with wisdom and grace,
dividing the power,
for woman and man, woman and man, a system that's fair. (R)

For young and for old,
a place at the table,
a voice to be heard, a part in the song, the hands of a child in hands that are wrinkled, for young and for old, young and for old, the right to belong. (R)

For just and unjust, a place at the table, abuser, abused, with need to forgive, in anger, in hurt, a mindset of mercy, for just and unjust, just and unjust, a new way to live. (Refrain)

For everyone born, a place at the table, to live without fear, and simply to be,
to work, to speak out,
to witness and worship,
for everyone born, everyone born
the right to be free, (R)

▲ We Sing – God Be With You

God be with you till we meet again;
loving counsels guide, uphold you, may the Shepherd's care enfold you;
God be with you till we meet again.
Till we meet, till we meet, till we meet at Jesus' feet.
Till we meet, till we meet,
God be with you till we meet again.
